

It has been lovely to welcome everyone back across the Secondary Phase after the half-term break, and I hope all our families had an enjoyable and restful time.

At Barwell Lane this week, I've had the pleasure of seeing how well pupils have settled back into school life. Across lessons, students have shown fantastic focus and determination as they work towards their progress targets. There's already a buzz of excitement as preparations for Sports Week begin, with pupils practising and getting ready to take part in a variety of events. In addition, pupils at Barwell Lane have been doing some brilliant work around regulation and wellbeing. Groups have been leading sessions for their peers—engaging in activities to support emotional understanding and using language and symbols to share how they are feeling. It's been fantastic to see students supporting each other and demonstrating such thoughtful self-awareness and communication.

At Middlefield Lane this week, I had the pleasure of joining the parent meeting for the upcoming leavers' trip to Scarborough. It was a real highlight to watch pupils confidently use their self-advocacy skills—asking questions, making suggestions, and taking an active role in shaping their experience. Their input was mature and thoughtful, and it was a proud moment for all involved. The tennis group at Middlefield Lane also had another great session this week, showing growing independence, control, and confidence in their play. The commitment from pupils to improving their skills while having fun is wonderful to see.

I hope everyone has a fantastic weekend, and I look forward to seeing pupils return next week ready to continue their learning journeys
